The Girl and the Fox

Writing descriptive narrative paragraphs.

Learning Question:

LQ: Can I brainstorm a story using a video clip to guide me?

Success Criteria:

- I can watch the video clip ‘The Girl and the Fox’
- I can list the main points of the story and list them

Vocabulary

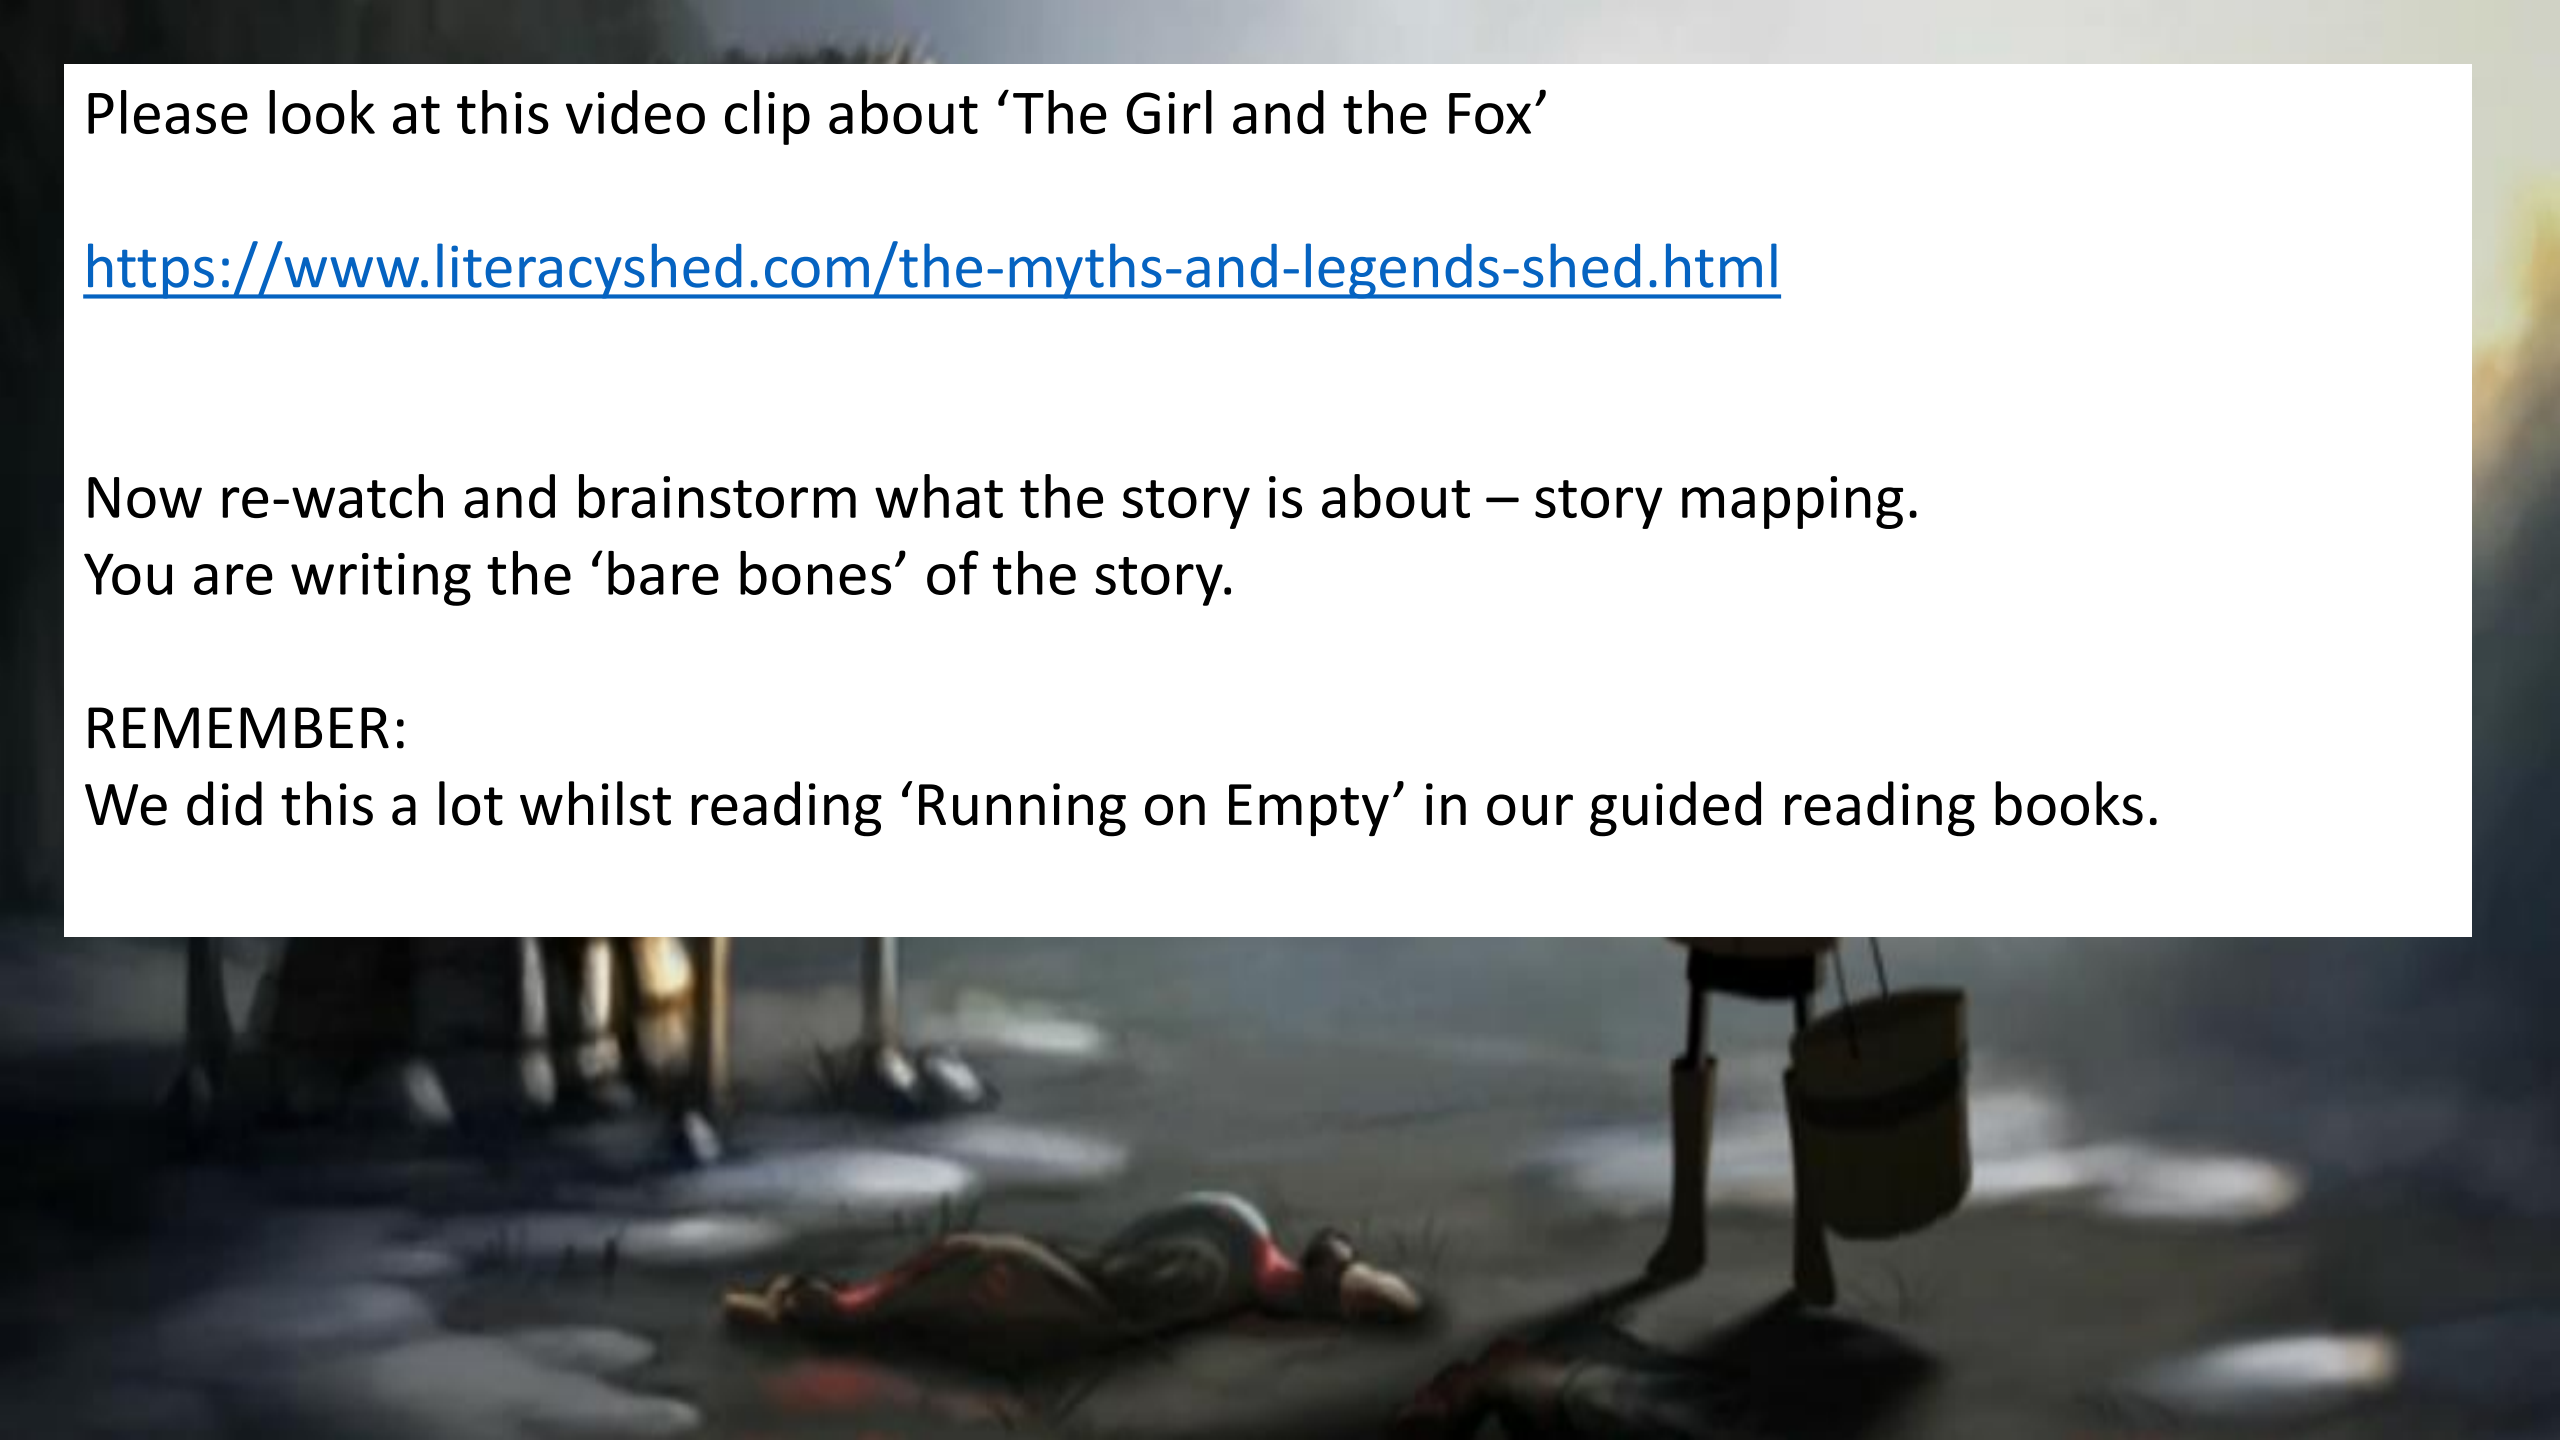
- Description
- Adjectives
- Expanded noun phrases
- Senses
- Feelings
- Rhetorical questions

Please look at this video clip about ‘The Girl and the Fox’

https://www.literacyshed.com/the-myths-and-legends-shed.html

Now re-watch and brainstorm what the story is about – story mapping.
You are writing the ‘bare bones’ of the story.

REMEMBER:
We did this a lot whilst reading ‘Running on Empty’ in our guided reading books.



TASK TIME!

All of you are to write a story map of ‘The Girl and the fox’.

People write story maps in various ways – the choice is yours.
You can draw your story map – remember to illustrate your drawings!
You can use arrows to write your story map – write brief phrases/sentences to map out the story.