POETRY

- This week your task is going to be to write a poem based on JUNK FOOD.

If Jasper O'Leary excelled at one thing... when it came to junk food he was clearly the king... A wonderful story about one boy and his odd tastes, which ultimately gets him into trouble. A darkly comic tale about the danger of 'junk' food.

Let's re-cap on the various types of poetry.

Think about which type of poem you would like to write.

ADJECTIVE POETRY

Adjectives are describing words. They are used in poetry to create many different effects and visual pictures to the reader. The adjectives can be used for a more in-depth description of a noun, or they can be used to add more excitement and attention within a line or verse.

Some examples of couplets within poems:

Roaring roads,

Noisy cars,

Beaming headlights,

Tall streetlamps,

Dark, cold night.

COUPLET POETRY

A couplet is a pair of lines. These two lines typically rhyme together. They are also the same length due to same number of syllables present.

Couplets are used in poetry in order to create a rhyming flow.

Some examples of couplets within poems:

It's hard to see the butterfly,
As it flies across the night sky.

I made the biscuits one by one,
I'm waiting for the bell, they're done.

Lightning, thunder all around,
So much rains falls to the ground.

USING ONOMATOPOEIA

Onomatopoeia is when a word imitates its natural sound, or suggests the sound a certain object makes. It is used in poetry to create a sound effect to make the description more expressive and interesting.

Some examples of onomatopoeia:

bang

crash

pop

smash

drip

buzz

tick tock

whoosh

wham

pow

PROSE POETRY

Prose is a form of language used in poetry that has no formal structure and is written in paragraphs. Prose does not relate to any form of rhymes or pattern. It can contain language play, such as repetition.

An example of a prose poem:

Sometimes I daydream. Thoughts inside my head. Pictures in my mind.
Drifting off into my own world. My mind's eye. Thoughts about my future.
Thoughts about my past. Thoughts about my present.
Until I wake up.

ALLITERATION

Alliteration is when the sound or letter at the beginning of each or most of the words in a sentence is the same.

Alliteration is used in poetry to create many different effects. It can be used to create a greater and more interesting description of different themes, people and objects.

Some examples of alliteration:

Sally sells sea shells by the sea shore.

All authors allow authority after midnight.

Theresa tripped and tumbled tremendously over the tree.

TASK TIME!!

A silhouette of a person with curly hair, wearing a dark shirt, is shown from the chest up, leaning forward as if writing. The person is positioned in the center of the frame against a bright, hazy sunset sky with scattered clouds. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong backlighting effect. The overall mood is contemplative and creative.

Your task is to use your words from yesterday to write a more detailed poem. You can write any type of poem that you like. Try to write a different type of poem than you did last time.
