

Caught in the Act!

Look carefully at the illustration below. Think about what might be happening here.

Choose one of the following characters from the scene. Imagine that you are the character: what might you be thinking and feeling?

Write in the role of the character, describing their thoughts in this scene.

Character 1

Character 2

Character 3

Large writing area with horizontal lines for student responses.