Learning Question:

How can I evaluate the dishes I made?

Success Criteria:

- ✓ I can collect the opinions of my customers (family)
- ✓ I can reflect on what went well
- ✓ I can reflect on what didn't go well and how I could change it.

Vocabulary

Evaluate Questionnaire

Today we will evaluate our products

Start by gathering the opinions of your customers!

Create a questionnaire to find out the following:

1. What did they like the most about the dish ?
2. What do they think the best part of the dish was?
3. What would they change for next time?

Today we will evaluate our products

Now, gather your opinions ...

Create a questionnaire for yourself to find out the following:

1. What did you like the most about the dish ?
2. What would you change for next time?
3. Was your recipe accurate or would it need adapting?

Evaluation page – pizza

A picture of my product	What my customers would change or improve
What my customers liked best	What I would change or improve
What I liked best	A design for my improved product

Evaluation page – sweet treat

A picture of my product	What my customers would change or improve
What my customers liked best	What I would change or improve
What I liked best	A design for my improved product

Why don't you recreate your improved version of your product!
