

Wednesday

Learning Question:

How can I plan a sweet treat for my family?

Success Criteria:

- ✓ I can research different options for a dish.
- ✓ I can survey my families preferences.
- ✓ I can use my survey and research to create a plan.
- ✓ I can create a recipe for my dish.

Vocabulary

- Plan
- Survey
- Ingredients
- Equipment

Your challenge is to ...

Create a sweet treat for your family!

Have a look at the following recipes and decide which one will work best for you to use as inspiration!

<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/rainbow-fruit-skewers>

<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/cooking-kids-chocolate-cornflake-cakes-0>

<https://www.funkidslive.com/food/fun-cooking-flapjack/#>

<https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/basic-muffin-recipe>

copy and paste links
into an internet browser

Gather some ideas ...

What type of treat could you create?

Why not research your own recipe or ask you family for their own recipes?

What about these ideas ...

What type of treat could you create?

Flapjack

Fairy cakes

Cereal cakes (e.g. cornflakes)

Muffins

Fruit skewers

Create a questionnaire to gather opinions of your family ...

Your aim is to make the tastiest sweet treat they have ever had!

Use your questionnaire to find out what they would like best.

You could call some family members you don't live with and make the dish for them when you can next see them!

Example questionnaire

What type of flavour do you prefer?

Option	Berries	Chocolate	Syrup	Other fruit
Tally

What type of texture would you like?

Option	Soft	Crunchy	Chewy	Flaky
Tally

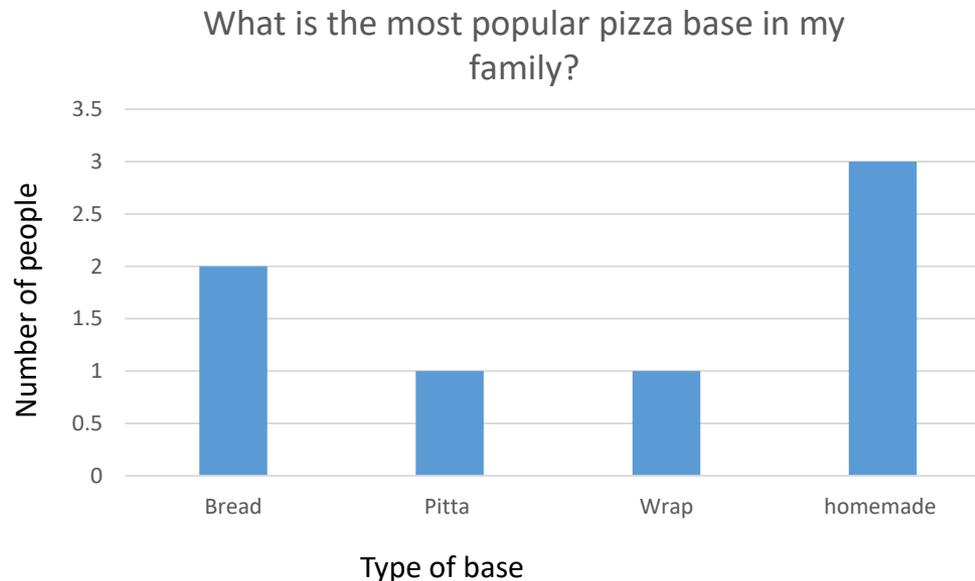

What type of product would you like best?

Option	Cake	Flapjack	Muffin	Prepared fruit
Tally

Interpreting your data ...

Can you turn your tally chart into a bar chart ?

Use the example from the pizza:

Creating a plan:

I am designing a
My target audience is:
What ingredients I will use and why	What equipment I will use and why
My design will look like this

Use the subheadings here to help you to organise your planning.

Remember to label your diagram.

Ensure that you have thought carefully about the ingredients you have at home!

Please don't go out just for ingredients. Try to use what you have in or create your pizza after your weekly shop. #staysafestayhome*