All about

Introduction:

Can you open with a rhetorical question?

Think about your “W” questions:

What / Who are you writing about?

What will you learn by reading?

Why are you writing?

Paragraph 1

Write your first main paragraph. Use the checklist to help you!

Topic title covers the whole subject.	Non-chronological reports use factual language .
Brief introduction paragraph gives who/what/where overview.	Present tense verbs (unless it is a historical report, then it would be past tense).
The information is organised into paragraphs .	Technical language may be explained in a glossary.
Each category has a sub-heading .	Third person makes it impersonal.
Some information may be in fact boxes or bullet-point lists.	Non-chronological reports have a formal tone .
Extra details support the main points.	General language , not particular examples.

Editing...

Re read your writing. You may need an adult to help you.

1. Have you used full stops and capital letters?
2. Do you need to correct any spellings?
3. Do your sentences make sense?
4. Check off success criteria (slide 2)
5. What can you add to meet more success criteria points?
