Sports Week!

Last week was Sports week at Iver Village Junior School which saw the whole school up and active getting involved in some new and exciting sports and athletics trials. The week included learning dance routines from professionals, having a go at ULTIMATE Frisbee and all kinds of sports. The week ended in Sports day on Monday, thank you to all the parents who attended (and took part!), we know it helped make the day as brilliant as it was.

Letters that have gone out this week:

Summer Fete Helpers (selected students)

Copies of school letters are available on our website

Dates for your diaries:

Date	Event
