Objectives to cover	At IVJS we want to promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of our children; preparing them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life, while having a duty to keep them safe. Our curriculum aims to achieve children’s potential by supporting their wellbeing and tackling issues that can affect their ability to learn, such as anxiety and unhealthy relationships. They will learn about bullying, citizenship, healthy eating, physical activity, mental and emotional health, wellbeing and relationships. Children develop skills of teamwork, communication, and resilience to help them thrive as individuals, family members and members of society.
