READING NEWS

IVJS's Reading Revolution

Reading Gladiators

In year 4 and year 6 children have the opportunity to participate in a fantastic reading club called Reading Gladiators. Both groups of children completed a mini-challenge and entered a competition against other schools in the area. The year 4 group used the book 'Hurricane' as inspiration to write a poem which they then performed and recorded. They were runners up and won two lovely books for our library – well done! Unfortunately, our year 6 group narrowly missed out on a prize, however, produced some fantastic pieces of art using the book 'Line of Fire' as inspiration.

Jackie Marchant – Author Visit

On Monday 22nd January we had an incredible afternoon where we met a local author called Jackie Marchant. Jackie is the writer the fantastically hilarious series 'Dougal Daley'. Prior to her visit, each class read an extract from one of her books which they found very entertaining. Don't forget to look out for the next book in the series which will be published soon!

Dahl Class Assembly

On Thursday 25th January we had the incredible Dahl Class Assembly! Well done to all of Dahl class who not only performed fantastically but also wrote their script. Roald Dahl is a world-famous children's author who is very popular amongst children at IVJS and it was very interesting to hear about his life and achievements.
