Stanza	Description
1. Describing the boys
2. Describing the journey to the beach

Each stanza should be 6 lines long! New line needs a capital letter even if it isn't a new sentence!

Here is an example for you to read.

Gregory Cool bored as can be
No TV or technology to see,
Lenox his cousin happy as can be
Wanted to play by the sea.
Can you see grandma with her picnic basket?
Perhaps a trip to the sea for a wonderful dip!

Sitting on a hot, dusty red bus
As hot an oven ready to bake a cake,
People bopping up and down
Smiley faces and cheeky grins all around,
Can you see the deep ,blue, Caribbean sea?
There it is in the horizon what at wonderful trip!

Coconuts falling, palm tree swaying,
Running on the hot smooth sand children are playing,
Sea shells sparkling in the shallow waters
Red and orange crabs clicking and clonking.
Can Gregory turn his frown upside down?
Perhaps Gregory is now ready to take a wonderful dip!

Gregory and Lennox climbing the magnificent palm tree,
Hopeful for a juicy coconut full of silky milk,
Time to splish, splash, splosh in the warm, deep, blue sea,
Gregory is a giant shark, Lennox is a massive stingray
Gregory Cool was it so bad after all ?
A day at the beach what a wonderful trip!
