Believe. Achieve. Succeed Together.

Cross Country

Some very enthusiastic Year 5 and 6 children went to the annual cross country event in Wycombe. Year 5 students ran 1.5km and year 6 ran 2km! Well done to all of those children who ran in the cold and wet!

Table Tennis

On Monday 16th October IVJS hosted their first tournament. With St Marys and Farnham Common coming to play in a table tennis tournament! IVJS competed well and ended up finishing joint second place! Well done to everyone who played and the sports leaders who umpired the entire thing!

Dare To Believe Festival

On Monday 9th October, all of year 5 attended a festival at the Beacon Centre in Beaconsfield. This was a tournament based around Paralympic sports and Paralympic medallist Ian Rose was there to cheer the children on! All Year 5 children had great fun and a huge mention to Julia who stood up and read an Olympic oath brilliantly! Well done to all!
