

Our targets today !

- Finish, edit and improve our fables.

Monday

Learning Question:

How can I write my own chosen fable?

Success Criteria:

- Identify features and language used in fables.
- Compare and contrast different fables.
- Identify and use powerful adjectives and verbs.
- Use speech throughout own story.
- Understand that each fable ends with a lesson or moral.
- Be able to use a planner to organise own fable.
- Write a fable with a clear ending moral.

Vocabulary

speech marks

comma

full stop

punctuation

Verb

Adverbial phrase

Final writing time !

Continue writing your fable until it is finished.

Hard: Use full sentences with full stops, capital letters and adjectives.

Harder: Write a paragraph to build up to the main problem, continue to describe using adjectives, adverbs and similes.

Hardest: Write your paragraph using a variety of sentence openers that express time and places.

Herculean: Include speech which is punctuated correctly in your writing!

Adverbs

Re read your fable and try to add some adverbs in your writing!

An adverb helps us to describe a _ _ _ _ !

You need to add 3 examples of adverbs to your writing!

Speech

Re read your fable and try to add some speech in your writing!

The punctuation we need for speech are :

-
-
-

You need to add at least 2 examples of speech to your writing!

Subordinating conjunctions

Re read your fable and try to add some subordinating conjunctions in your writing!

A conjunction helps us to _____

An example of a subordinating conjunction is:

You need to add 2 examples of subordinating conjunctions to your writing!

Co-ordinating conjunctions

Re read your fable and try to add some subordinating conjunctions in your writing!

A conjunction helps us to _____

An example of a co ordinating conjunction is:

You need to add 2 examples of co ordinating conjunctions to your writing!

Tenses

Re read your fable and try to check you have used the correct tense in your writing

My fable should be written in the _____ tense.

Ensure all verbs are in the correct tense!

Publishing!

Publish your fable.

You could illustrate it to make it really come alive!

