

Imperative verbs you may use:

turn put add pour place

whisk take stir hold fill set make open

Here are a list of imperative verbs that relate to cooking:

First, add the sugar, flour, cocoa and mix well.

Next, whisk the egg in a bowl.

Your turn to write 2 sentences using these words...

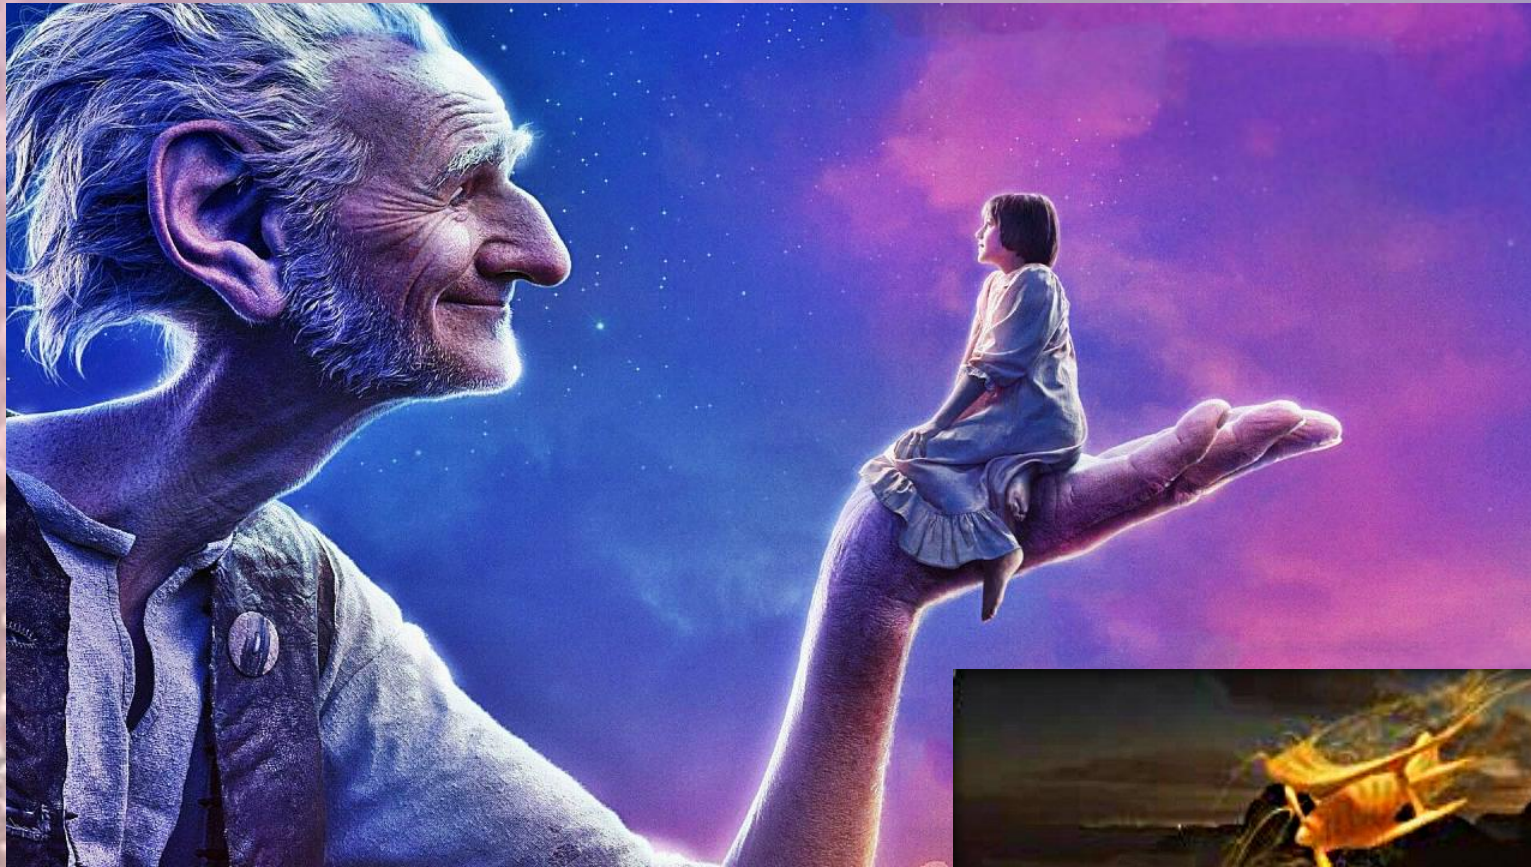

Learning Question:

How can I write a recipe for creating a dream?

Success Criteria:

- Identify language and structural features of a recipe
- Use technical vocabulary when writing instructions
- Use imagination to create an exciting dream.

Vocabulary

Dreams

Today's Targets

1. To write a recipe to create a dream for my next year at school
2. Include an ingredients list and a method.

Technical Language

- Technical language are words related to the subject...
 - Can you think of words that would relate to a recipe?
 - Ingredients, Utensils, Cook, Bowl etc.
- Make a bullet point list of the words that would be linked to a recipe.

Ingredients

Mix

Stir

Measurements

Cup

Teaspoon

Tablespoon

Sprinkle

Drop

Example: Ingredients:

- A cup of smiles and your best friend's giggling laughter
- A tablespoon of relaxing birdsong echoing as children chatter on the playground.
- A teaspoon of stories full of pure imagination and magic
- A pinch of soft feathers slowly floating down from heaven
- A measure of glistening sunlight beaming through the classroom window.

Your task- Ingredients

Use your imagination to create some exciting ingredients to put into your dream.

Try to expand on these ideas, like the example, use description, similes and metaphors to show your reader rather than just telling your reader.

Try and link them to your hopes and wishes for your next year at school.