This Week In School...

Year 3 – have really enjoyed finishing the Iron Man story and have been planning a newspaper report about the Iron Man's battle against the bat winged angel dragon. In Maths, they have worked really hard and shown resilience by applying the chunking method for division.

Year 4 – have been looking at newspaper reports in English and are publishing their own newspaper reports. In Maths, they have been looking at place value, all the while finding time to rehearse for their Christmas production!

Year 5 – have been creating a narrative about 'The Last Sandwich' based on their book. What has happened to the sandwich, who knows? In Maths, they have been looking at using all operations in word problems.

Year 6 – have finished editing and drafting their escape stories which are full of exciting drama and suspense. They have continued learning about fractions. They have converted improper fractions to mixed numbers, added fractions, subtracted fractions and also begun applying their understanding to problem solving. In addition they have finished our mini enterprise projects ready for tomorrow's fete.

Year 5 Girls Football

The Year 5 girls had an amazing time learning new skills such as dribbling, kicking and ball control. They spent the afternoon practising these skills, as well as using formation to strengthen their teams as they played a mini match. The coaches were very, very impressive by the enthusiasm and skills these girls had!

Extra Early birds

We would like to thank everyone who comes to school early however we cannot look after children outside without parents before 8.30am.

If you need to drop your child off before this and are unable to look after them, you are welcome to bring them to our Earlybirds breakfast club in the school diner, charges start from £2 from 8am.

Artists of the Week!

Please remember to keep an eye out for nits!

Don't forget we are a nut free school as we have children who have allergies!

Morpurgo Class Assembly

Morpurgo Class had their assembly this week and spoke about the IVJS Reading Revolution and their class author, Michael Morpurgo. They reviewed four of his books: Warhorse, Butterfly Lion, Kensuke's Kingdom and I Believe in Unicorns. They also created a lovely reading song to get everyone motivated and inspired by books.

Well done everyone for a fantastic performance!

Coffee Morning

Next Friday is our last coffee morning of 2017!

Join Mr Clifford and Mrs Chapman-Allen in the diner from 8.45am for a cuppa and a chat about Philosophy for Children (P4C).

This is the latest addition to our scheme of teaching, focusing on encouraging children to think creatively, critically and collaboratively.

Reading Week

We have a very exciting week coming up next week with not one, but THREE reading events!

Wednesday will be the start of the Book Fair with some rather excellent books and stationary to buy.

Then, join us on Wednesday morning between 8.30 and 9.30am for an hour of reading in our lovely library and again on Friday evening from 6pm for our very exciting PJs and hot chocolate night! Bring your teddies and settle in for some excellent stories...

FISA Christmas Fair!

This Saturday is the FISA Christmas Fair! IVJS will be open from 12pm to 3pm with parking available in the playground. Please remember to walk or car share as parking will be limited and remember to have fun!

Oh I am feeling festive!

Mural!!

Thank you to the incredible Miss Rowe, our Art teacher who spent weeks in the bitterest weather, just to create this fantastic mural in the school playground to celebrate our 120th birthday.

Check out our website for an incredible time lapse video of how it was made!

World Children's Day

This week, our year 5s and 6s were joined by our friends at EqualTeach! It is a not-for-profit organisation providing interactive training and support on issues of equality, diversity and inclusion for education settings. Their vision is an equal, inclusive and productive society where everyone is valued and able to achieve their full potential.

Upper School spent Monday learning about equality, celebrating diversity and tackling discrimination in every walk of life. They played a game where they got to invite people to a dinner party e.g. Olympic athlete, Spanish immigrant and discussed prejudices and stereotypes.

The people were then revealed and identified as exceptionally well-known/famous people and they were surprised to see that their assumptions were inaccurate.

This Week's Staffie Award!

This week's 'Staffie' was given to the teacher of the week, Miss Skinner going above and beyond supporting the children.

Ivertastics!

Well done to;

James and Mahmood
